01 The Script

0:00 – 1:04

HOOK

0:00 – 0:06

You're about to blame your ads for another half-empty cohort.
It isn't the ads.

PROOF OF SEEING

0:06 – 0:28

Three out of a hundred nurses are ready to enroll today.
You built everything for those three.
Here's the rest of that hundred.
Seventeen percent are comparing you to two other programs.
Twenty percent are on a night shift googling what an injector earns.
Sixty percent have never thought about injecting at all.

REFRAME

0:28 – 0:32

The other ninety-seven, you call bad leads.

COST

0:32 – 0:39

They're not bad. They're early.
In four months, they're in somebody else's cohort.

RELEASE

0:39 – 0:44

It isn't your fault. It's just not built yet.

HANDOFF

0:44 – 1:04

So let's call it an Enrollment Engine.
What does it do?
It answers the seventeen percent in seconds.
It works the twenty for thirty days.
It puts you in front of the sixty.
You're inside one right now. It's how this ad found you.
Click the link below and watch the four-minute breakdown.
Your next cohort fills, or it doesn't.

02 How To Record It

TALENT DIRECTION

THE ONE RULE

Flat, level, unhurried — the same read as the VSL. This is a diagnosis, not a pitch. The moment it sounds like enthusiasm it stops matching the landing page, and the click goes cold. Roughly 145 words per minute. No rise at the end of lines.

- “You’re about to” — the only lift in the whole reel. Hit it, then flatten and stay flat.
- “It isn’t the ads.” — full stop, half-beat of silence. This two-word denial is what buys the next fifteen seconds.
- Half-second pause after “...for those three.”
- “Here’s the rest of that hundred.” — this is the turn into the breakdown. Mark it.
- The three percentages — rhythm section. Equal weight, equal length, clipped. Do not emphasise any one of them.
- Night-shift line — slightly slower. It’s the only picture in the script; let them see it.
- “They’re not bad. They’re early.” — the hardest-landing beat. Silence either side. Do not warm it up. Do not smile after it.
- “...somebody else’s cohort.” — slower. Underplay it; it lands harder that way.
- “It isn’t your fault...” — slowest line in the script. Sincere, direct to lens. This beat buys the click, not the CTA.
- “What does it do?” — half-beat either side, and ask it to yourself. If it sounds performed it turns into an infomercial.
- Three “It” beats — identical length, hard stop between each.
- Half-second silence before “You’re inside one right now.” Only moment you’re allowed to sound like you know something they don’t — then straight back to flat.
- Land on “or it doesn’t.” No smile. Hold the frame a beat before cutting.

03 On-Screen Text

EDITOR

FIRST FRAME	IT ISN'T THE ADS. — burned, top third. This is the thumbnail; it must read at zero-scroll with sound off.
PROOF OF SEEING	Four bars build bottom-up: 3% READY NOW · 17% COMPARING · 20% WANT INCOME · 60% NEVER CONSIDERED IT. Burned captions OFF while bars are up — never both.
REFRAME	3% bar lights, the rest go grey → 97% lights red and holds.
RELEASE	Full frame over the face, no graphic: IT ISN'T YOUR FAULT. IT'S JUST NOT BUILT YET.
HANDOFF	Burn ENROLLMENT ENGINE on the coinage. The three grey bars relight one at a time, one per “It” beat. Burn YOU'RE INSIDE ONE RIGHT NOW — too fast to catch in audio alone.
END CARD	THE ENROLLMENT ENGINE · LIVE IN 15 DAYS + logo.
BAR STYLE	Match the VSL's seven-pillar bar graphic exactly, so ad and landing page read as one continuous asset.

04 Production

SPECS

EXPORT	1080 × 1920, 9:16, H.264 MP4, 30fps, loud-normalised audio.
CUTTING	Hard cuts only — one on each percentage. No transitions, no swooshes.
MUSIC	None, or a near-silent bed. Silence is what makes “They’re early.” work.
CAPTIONS	Burned in. Keep clear of the bottom 250px (IG/TikTok UI overlap).
CONTINUITY	Shoot on the VSL day. Same room, wardrobe, lens, grade. The ad and the VSL must read as one conversation continuing.
CLAIMS	No earnings claims, no outcome promises, no second-person financial implication anywhere. Results proof stays in the VSL where the screen recordings prove it.

STILL TO TEST

A 40-second cut against the 64 · “injectors” or “clinicians” in place of “nurses” · alternate hook: “Open your admissions inbox. Count the ones you never replied to.”
