0:00 TO 1:06

Real face, direct to lens. Flat, level, unhurried. Same read as the VSL. This is a diagnosis, not a pitch. Around 145 wpm.

HOOK

0:00 TO 0:06

You're about to blame your ads for another half-empty cohort.
It isn't the ads.

PROOF OF SEEING

0:06 TO 0:28

Three out of a hundred nurses are ready to enroll today.
You built everything for those three.
Here's the rest of that hundred.
Seventeen percent are comparing you to two other programs.
Twenty percent are on a night shift googling what an injector earns.
Sixty percent have never thought about injecting at all.

REFRAME

0:28 TO 0:32

Your ad, your page, your follow-up. All built for the three.
The other ninety-seven, you call bad leads.

COST

0:32 TO 0:39

They're not bad. They're early.
In four months, they're in somebody else's cohort.

RELEASE

0:39 TO 0:44

It isn't your fault. It's just not built yet.

HANDOFF

0:44 TO 1:06

So let's call it an Enrollment Engine.
What does it do?
It answers the seventeen percent in seconds.
It puts the twenty percent into a thirty-day follow-up across text, email and voice.
It gets you in front of the sixty percent.
And guess what? You're inside one right now. It's how this ad found you.

Your next cohort fills, or it doesn't.
